

December 1st - the World Day of battle against AIDS is marked today through many events in Bulgaria under the motto "Connect in a safe way. Protect the love. Use condom". Students from "Ivan Vazov" Secondary school were joined in the campaign with their own initiatives - a dissemination of materials with information about HIV and ways to protect oneself from it, presenting the Power Point presentation and break dances.