

On September 30th, 2011 was held the second initiative of the paragliding club "Sky Nomad" in the town of Sopot with a coordinator Ralitzka Nikolova.

Students from second grade of "Ivan Vazov" Secondary school painted on the project "Establishment of sustainable practices to improve the living environment by protecting the pine forests near the town of Sopot"

Environmental Partnership Foundation and international programme "Place to live- 2011"

This project is funded by
"Charles Stewart Mott"

The
project aim
is to create sustainable practices for improving the living environment through public involvement and solving environmental problems.

Using the nice weather children walked to "Manastirska polyana". Students learned everything about the project and discussed environmental problems during the walk

There were games for
meeting
new friends from the club.

I'm painting the Forest

Students

r

received materials for painting and they have made wonderful paintings of

pine forest,

mountain,

track cycling and of course they had opportunities to show their imagination for 30 minutes.

The last stage was the most exciting - visit ing

improvised

exhibition and contest

winner. Participants gave their own voice, following

condition: do not choose their own work and to choose

one of all

paintings

The m

ost

liked

we

re

pictures of Tsvetelina, Paola, Valentin, Martin and Plamen.

The winner

, with the most votes

was

Paola

Dusova

whom

organizers

gave

a

prize - paragliding.

All participants received advertising

the club and of course

treat.

The organizers expressed their gratitude and they were really

satisfact

ed

from the recent sessions.

Children were happy and went home with the memories of a beautiful autumn day and indicated their willingness to assist in initiatives to protect our nature.
