

There is a week of sport activity in Europe, which is held between 7th and 13th October every year. Its motto is "More than 100 million European athletes". In 16 towns and cities in Bulgaria starts the national company " Animation teams – Bulgaria 2013" .

"Ivan Vazov" Secondary School was included in this national company through its annual autumn sport activities. The start was given on 4th October through students' jogging and the performing continued with competitions among grades :animated games, ball games, sack race , volleyball, long jump, juggling with a soccer ball and ect. The playing field was filled with voices and whistles of fans, there were comic scenes, too.

Smiles were everywhere - on students' and teachers' faces

- because 4

th

October is also a National Day of a Smile. There were winners and losers like in every competition, but all of them got sweet surprises.

İvan Vazov "Secondary school expects all of students to take part in coming events from 7 th

to 11 th

October.
