

“Ivan Vazov” Secondary School, Sopot was included in the international project - “Math without Borders”, during the 2013/ 2014 school year.” More than 3810 students from 10 countries solved math problems in the autumn competition for the reward of the project “Math without Borders”. Fourteen students from 2nd to 7th grade presented the school. For the participation in the project , they received certificates with the total sum of points which they had gathered.

Happy victory to Martin Ganchev, who won a prize for second place.