

This year like everyone before, on the eve of May 24th the members of School "Ivan Vazov", Sopot awarded the prize "Student of the Year" to the most studious students. 31 students were nominated and everyone of them received certificates. The award "Student of the Year" - third degree received Denitza Chonova of 7a; Velin Dimov 6a was awarded "Student of the Year" - second degree. The winner of "The student of the Year" - first rate was Christian Ivanov 7b class.

According to the tradition, this event is also connected with last school bell ringing for the seniors. The gradulators left the school yard and took on their own way after kind words from their former-teacher and exciting words from the head teacher of Secondary School "Ivan Vazov".
