

On June 15 the biggest part of students from the IvanVazov Secondary school finished their education to this school year. At its first session of school year 2016/2017, the school council approved an idea of the chairman Ivan Dominov and on the last school day for the students of the 5-8 grade he realized it. At a special ceremony he handed out medals and diplomas to full marksmen. The class teacher with the least absences received the diploma.

HAVE A NICE VACATION!
